Edgerton Hospital has named Jennifer Ludwig, RD, CD, LDN as the hospital's registered dietitian. Assuming the role in March, Ludwig has the responsibility of providing medical nutrition therapy and completing nutrition assessments for all hospital patients, including both in-patient and out-patient, as well as cardiac rehabilitation members. In addition to carefully monitoring new diabetic patient diets, cardiac or specialty diets, Ludwig plans to hold a variety of community education courses on good health, disease prevention and proper eating.

With over 21 years of experience in nutrition and wellness education, Ludwig strives to teach and motivate people with food-related illnesses, as well as any individual who is interested in maintaining good health.
