

In accordance with Internal Revenue Code §501(r)(4)(B), Edgerton Hospital and Health Services is required to identify which healthcare providers deliver emergency or other medically necessary care at the hospital, and whether the services they provide are covered under this Financial Assistance Policy (FAP).

This appendix serves to fulfill that requirement.

Scope of Disclosure

This document applies to all physicians and non-physician practitioners who:

- Provide emergency or medically necessary care in the hospital or its outpatient departments.
- Bill independently for their professional services.

Coverage under the Financial Assistance Policy

Hospital Services:

All emergency and medically necessary services provided directly by Edgerton Hospital and Health Services are covered under this FAP, subject to eligibility criteria.

Provider Services:

Some healthcare providers who deliver care at Edgerton Hospital and Health Services are not employees of the hospital and may bill separately. Their services may or may not be covered under the hospital's FAP. Please see Edgerton Hospital and Health Services provider list.

Access to the Provider List

A current list of individual providers, including:

- The names of physician groups and individual practitioners.
- The types of services they provide; and
- Whether their services are covered under this FAP, is maintained by Edgerton Hospital and Health Services and is available:

- On the hospital website at: <https://www.edgertonhospital.com/patients-visitors/financial-assistance>
- Upon request by contacting: Katherine Dobberpuhl, Medical Staff Coordinator 608 884-1609 kdobb@edgertonhospital.com
